

ANDREW GOLD'S

Halloween Horror

Fun & Scary music

Every year my family and I decorate our home for Christmas and for Halloween... we're big on holiday decorations around these parts. Each holiday has a mood and usually has music to go with it, especially Christmas. However, it's been very hard to find any tapes or CD's of Halloween music. In fact, there's mostly just scary sound effects available and very few songs. So, I fixed that, and you're holding it now.

Have a Happy, Scary, Fun Halloween!

-Andrew

Longtime musical friend Linda Ronstadt and Bryndle bandmate Karla Bonoff join Andrew & lead vocalist Stephen Bishop on a new take of the classic Halloween riff, "The Monster Mash."

Andrew's good friend, David Cassidy, sings lead vocal on one of Andrew's off-beat original tunes, "Halloween Party," while David's wife, mother and son join in on backup vocals.

When the songs called for children's voices, Andrew didn't have to go far. Two of his children, Victoria and Emily, were right there, and some of their friends sang along, too.

And when it called for a mother's voice, pop singer/songwriter and children's artist Nicolette Larson did the honors.
