A NOTE FROM ME

Over the years I've always had a stockpile of extra, unfinished, or just plain unreleased songs gathering dust on my shelves, so to speak. These have no real business being on the same record, being so different from one another, hence the title of the album. I must have over 200 of these floating around, so, what the hell. Might as well foist them upon you, as I need the shelf space. Here you go. Maybe you can figure out what to do with the damn things.

Andrew January 1998

Special thanks to Gary Needham (AKA Excitable) for providing the perfect title for this album
